They learn active learning. The second section is the English courses. The school-wide English education center along with the Department of International Affairs provides more than 135 credits of all-English courses with various topics in social science, humanity and business administration. They learn comprehension and awareness of international affairs. Students are required to be fluent in English listening, speaking, reading, writing, and, researching, before graduation. They learn excellent foreign language expression ability. The third section is the professional training courses. More than 67 credits of course covered subjects of international politics, international economy, international culture and academic research skill. Students have more comprehension and awareness of international affairs.

Training and Skill

Life

Important School Events

College Student English Proficiency Test (This exam is held every April, and the actual date is mainly announced by the Academic Affairs Office.) The College Student English Proficiency Test (CSEPT) is an important English proficiency indicator for our university students. It is not only the basis for English course placement, but also the English graduation condition. Students are required to take this test every academic year before they reach the English graduation requirements.

Important Departmental Events

English Corner(First-year students are required to participate)

The freshmen will be grouped and led by the juniors and seniors. They will discuss different topics during the extracurricular time, and think and express their opinions in English from the aspects current international news and affairs. Through this activity, students can develop practical English skills in daily life, instead of only having the English ability to cope with the exam. In addition, tutors from all grades will be trained to form an English chat group to conduct English conversations outside the classroom.

International Affairs Forum (Sophomore and senior students are required to participate)

This forum is conducted in English. In order to strengthen students' ability to learn independently in international affairs, speakers are invited to discuss political, economic and cultural issues. In the field of international affairs, with the concept of regional research, experts and scholars are invited to explore the current international issues from politics, law, and culture, so that students have a more comprehensive understanding of the current state of international affairs.

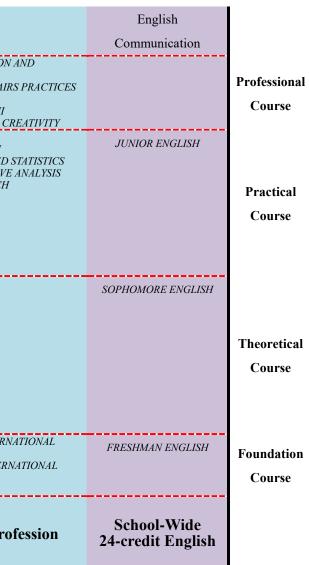

Graduation paper presentation (All students are required to participate)

This activity invites full-time teachers and off-campus teachers to participate, and jointly examine the learning results of the graduating students in the past four years. This event will be conducted in full English mode. After the graduation papers are presented (in November each year), 12-15 outstanding students will be selected to enter the final conference. A paper presentation will be held in the Cardinal Shan International Conference Room. At the meeting, people and parents from inside and outside the school will be invited to enjoy the students' great speech.

Curriculum of the Department of International Affairs

©When taking the 33-credit departmental cores, students should follow the following regulations.

(1) Students need to pass English Reading for International Affairs and English Writing for International Affairs before taking Introduction to Research Methodology.

(2) Students need to pass Introduction to Research Methodology and Conference English and International Etiquette before taking Graduation Project I and Research Methodology I.

(3) Students need to pass Graduation Project I before taking Graduation Project II and Research Methodology II.

(When taking the 34-credit departmental electives, students should follow the following regulations.

(1) Among the pair courses of (Contemporary Social Development Problems and Cultural Politics and Society), (Comparative Politics and International Relations), and (Economic Policy and Introduction to Business Management), students need to pass at least 4 courses from the 2 pairs.

(2)Students need to take Case Study and Qualitative Analysis or Survey Design and Applied Statistics.

OWhen taking the 10-credit general electives, the following rules apply.

All elective courses and internship offered by the Department or other international-affairs-related courses offered by other departments can be qualified as the credits for the 10-credit general electives.
 (When taking courses offered by other departments, please check with the Department to assure that they are related to international affairs.)

(2) If Students' English proficiency is at the C2 level of the CEFR (The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages), they can provide proof of certificate to the Department to waive English Reading for International Affairs and English Writing for International Affairs and to take another 6 credits of courses to meet the requirements of the two core courses.

(3) Before graduation, every student needs to complete at least one certificate sanctioned by the department.

(4) Before graduation, every student needs to complete at least an internship sanctioned by the department.

(a) SUMMER INTERNSHIP II is a 4-credit course, which can be counted as 4 credits of the 34-credit departmental electives. Students need to intern for 320 hours.

(b) OVERSEAS INTERSHIP IV is a 4-credit course, which can be counted as 4 credits of the 34-credit departmental electives. Students need to intern for 144 hours.

(c) OVERSEAS INTERSHIP II is a 2-credit course, which can be counted as 2 credits of the 10-credit general electives. Students need to intern for 72 hours.

(d) SEMESTER-BASED OFF-CAMPUS INTERNSHIP I is a 15-credit course, which can be counted as 9 credits of the 34-credit departmental electives. Students need to intern for 4.5 months. Before taking this internship, students need to pass Graduation Project II.

(e) SEMESTER-BASED OVERSEAS INTERNSHIP I is a 15-credit course, which can be counted as 9 credits of the 34-credit departmental electives. Students need to intern for 4.5 months. Before taking this internship, students need to pass Graduation Project II.

(f) Students can only choose one of the internships to be counted as the credits for departmental electives.

(5) For the required general education courses, Four-year College students of Day Division must choose one course each from Courses for General Education: Society, law, and Politics, Nature and Aesthetics, Science and Popular Scientific Education, Advance courses and courses on studying Trans-district issues, for a total of 8 credits.

(6) The exact list of general education course to be offered is subject to the arrangement of the General Education Center's course catalog of the academic year. Prior to graduation, please check whether you have fulfilled the course requirement for each group.

(7) These elective courses listed are for reference only. Please refer to the latest list on each department website every year to make sure the courses are available.

(8) The elective courses offered by each department are department electives for students in that department. While for students from different departments, those courses only count as general elective courses. (Different in credit)

(9) Should there be any changes in the course schedule of the department, please refer to the newest version.

List of Professional Certificates of Graduation Requirement

民國 97 年 09 月 02 日 國際事務系務會議通過 民國 100 年 9 月 7 日 國際事務系 100 學年度第 1 學期第 1 次系務會議修正通過 民國 104 年 11 月 10 日國際事務系 104 學年度第 1 學期第 4 次系務會議修正通過 民國 105 年 1 月 5 日國際事務系 104 學年度第 1 學期第 6 次系務會議修正通過

Note: Before graduation, every student needs to successfully pass at least one certificate approved by the department. In addition to the certificates listed in this table, students have three other options during their studies to meet this graduation requirement:

- 1. Although not the certificate mentioned in the list, the certificate was determined by Department International Affairs to be relevant to international affairs before the examination.
- 2. Participated in eight academic seminars related to international affairs outside the university and obtained the attendance certificate.
- 3. Choose a single foreign language course other than French, German, Spanish, and Japanese, with 16 credits and all scores of 70 or more.

WZU GENIUS HUNT

The event will be designed with the theme of "politics", "culture" and "economy". Through the exciting game, participants will be more interested in international affairs and at the same time let his students understand the Department of International Affairs. The event will be promoted online, and students of Wenzao University will be free to sign up. The questions in the competition are mainly essay questions and multiple choice questions. The questions will be shown on the PPT, and the contestants will need to write the answer on the answer card, and the staff will confirm the answer and then score.

Professional License Course

In order to cope with the era of financial securities industry licenses, and to help students who are interested in the development of financial and related industries to successfully enter the workplace after graduation, we especially open this certification course in extracurricular time.

After-school tutoring course

For students who have inadequate English proficiency in the first-year part of the department, the instructors will provide after-school tutoring to improve the motivation and overall learning outcomes of students who are behind schedule.

Prospect

Career Prospects

The graduates of the department who wish to pursue higher studies can apply for national or international graduate schools. A large number of universities now offer graduate institutes of politics, diplomacy, regional studies (such as European Studies, Asia Pacific Studies) and international cultural studies. For employment readiness, graduates can apply for positions in civil service through examinations administered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Education, and bureaus of Cultural Affairs in various city or county governments. In addition, they can work for non-governmental organizations, enterprises and cultural related industries to apply their international skills.

Guest Teachers

In terms of collaborative teaching, we will invite scholars, experts and practitioners with relevant backgrounds in international affairs to collaborate in classrooms every semester. Some of the companies participating in the collaborative teaching also become the internship partners of our department. For example, "International Marketing Management" and "SEMINAR ON EXTERNAL AFFAIRS PRACTICES" respectively, in cooperation with "SHAAN HONQ International Enterprise Co., Ltd." and "Ministry of Foreign Affairs", not only invites supervisors to come to teach practical experience, but also sign internship contracts with the department.

Job Fair
